

The KES/KEHS jazz machine rolls on, still gathering momentum and drawing more and more support from students, staff, and parents alike. Come and see what the piano players have been up to for the last twelve months as they explore the ins and outs of that centre of the musical universe: the piano, or to be more precise, our very own monolith, the Ruddock Steinway. Bass and drums will accompany every player, and there will be singing. Who knows, maybe even dancing from some of the staff. Or perhaps not.

... and dance
